TICKETS OF ADMISSION

Selling Agencies.

1. Tickets will be sold abroad by the travel agencies, shipping companies and other bodies authorized by the Organizing Committee. Sale commences on February 15th., 1939.

Orders and terms of payment.

2. Applications for tickets are to be made on special order forms which must then be returned to the selling agency.
3. No rebates will be granted.
4. Cost of tickets and postage are to be remitted as directed by selling agency.
5. In general no refund can be demanded on tickets which have been paid for. The selling agency may, however, reserve the right to refund at its own discretion.
6. Should the XIIth. Olympic Games be prevented by force majeure from taking place in Finland in 1940, the selling agency shall refund to the ticket holder 95 % (ninety five per cent) of the price of the ticket.

Distribution of tickets.

7. On receipt of payment for the ticket, the holder will be given details of the seat reserved for him.
8. Tickets will be despatched during May and June, 1940, by registered post, to the address given in the order form. If it is desired that tickets be sent to some other address, notification, accompanied by seat and reference number (appearing on the order form) must be sent in good time to the selling agency.
9. Tickets lost, destroyed, or otherwise mislaid by the holder, cannot be replaced.
10. Should tickets be sold at prices higher than those fixed, the Organizing Committee reserve the right to withdraw such tickets and declare them invalid without refunding their value.

Prices. See page 12.

TRAVEL

Travel to Finland.

Extra services to the Games are being arranged by most of the steamship companies. Amongst them may be mentioned the Baltic lines to Helsinki, the Tallin—Helsinki, the Stockholm—Helsinki and the Stockholm—Turku lines.

On several railway and steamship lines a special rebate is allowed on the price of tickets. Details will be published later.

Parties.

Special group tours to the Games are being organised by most of the leading steamship lines and travel agencies, from whom further particulars can be obtained.

Round tours.

Travel agencies will be arranging interesting round tours through Finland, both before and after the Olympic Games. Further particulars from all travel agencies.
